

Professional Headshot portrait pricing menu

Thank you for choosing Picture Day for your professional portrait today.

Professionals need digital images to use on their websites, social media profiles, and for printing in promotional materials or newsletters. You will have access to your online gallery within a week from your session, and offered in the gallery are different print sizes and products, as well as electronic format files. It takes about a week to receive prints, less for a digital files, depending on retouching requests.

Your booking deposit of $50 will be credited to any order of $50 or more at checkout.

If you are not happy with the results of either your sitting or any product we offer, we will either make it right or refund your money, so there is no risk. We stand firmly behind what we do!
